My favorite hotel is the Antica Locanda Solferino. Even if it's not supercomfortable, the charm is the real luxury of it. I always go to La Latteria restaurant for homemade Italian cooking. There are just seven tables inside, but the wait is worth it. I love Milan-based designer and architect Vincenzo De Cotiis's work, and his gallery on Via Carlo de Cristoforis is a favorite stop. Also, Nilufar Depot has amazing collectible design pieces as well as a vintage design selection in a former storage space.
