We are 200

In our heavy-hitting two-ton issue, we run down and big up design's Power 200. Are you on our list?

65

Holly Hunt

Texan designer Hunt founded her eponymous company in 1984, and it went on to become one of America's finest design brands, collaborating with the likes of Lindsey Adelman and Christian Astuguevieille. In 2014, Knoll acquired Holly Hunt enterprises for $95m, starting a new chapter in the history of the brand.

64

Ludovica + Roberto Palomba

The husband-and-wife team celebrated 21 years of their design partnership Palomba Serafini this year. The pair turn their hand to everything from lamps and bathtubs to super yachts, and recently completed the first standalone Kartell by Laufen showroom, in Milan, in part to showcase their own collection.

63

Fredrikson Stallard

The designs of Patrik Fredrikson and Ian Stallard sit in foyers, museums, stores, restaurants, hotels and private collections around the world, a sensuous fusion of form and rigour. At this year's London Design Festival, the duo marked ten years since their first major collection with new pieces for David Gill Gallery.

62

Jean-Marie Massaud

Another year, another Red Dot award for Massaud, for a work chair and ottoman series for Coalesse. In recent years, the French designer has also completed some ambitious architectural projects and, for this year's Salone, his first perfume as part of Brera's Garden of Wonders exhibition.

61

Patrick Jouin

Increasingly, the success of Jouin's interior design agency JouinMankin is pulling him away from product design. His two-year refurbishment of a Saint-Lazare priory was shortlisted for a Wallpaper* Design Award, while the latest incarnation of his Rivea restaurant for Alain Ducasse opens in Las Vegas next month.

60

Michael Young

Hong Kong-based since 2006, Young has successfully married Chinese manufacturing capacity to his refined Old World design aesthetic. This combination is seen to best effect in his watch ranges, in his re-engineered Moke beach buggy and this year's James Irvine-inspired 'Chelsea Boy' glass for WonderGlass.

59

Norbert Wangen

Kitchen-design genius Wangen first turned heads with Boffi's 'K2' monoblock, with a steel top that concealed the cooking system and slid out to become a dining table. He is currently reviving this own line with the minimalist 'Forever' kitchen, and he co-designed The Flushing Meadows Hotel & Bar, opened in Munich last year.

58

Vladimir Kagan

His latest monograph features a preface by Tom Ford and a forward by Zaha Hadid, but with a career that spans more than 60 years, the German-born Kagan has plenty of famous admirers to call upon. A prolific midcentury furniture designer with a sinuous style, this year he added a must-read blog to his many talents.

57

Moritz Waldemeyer

Wired from the outset thanks to early chandelier collaborations with Ron Arad, Hussein Chalayan and Zaha Hadid, Waldemeyer's work has tracked the LED's rise as a source of entertainment. His technical background helps keep him on the cutting edge, with installations ranging from the wearable to the truly immersive.

56

Noé Duchaufour-Lawrance

Since his breakthrough in 2002 with the outlandish interiors for London restaurant Sketch, Duchaufour-Lawrance's work has included identities for Air France and Yves Saint Laurent cosmetics, as well as furniture for Bernhardt Design and Ceccotti Collezioni, and lighting for Baccarat and Gaia & Gino.
